

The USC Postdoctoral Association proudly presents the Immigration Options for Postdocs: A survey of immigrant and nonimmigrant visa categories

Wednesday June 20th, 2018
5pm

MCB 101

University Park Campus of USC

Lucy Avedissian is a Specialist in Immigration and Nationality Law, as certified by the State Bar of California, Board of Legal Specialization. She is also a Commissioner with the Immigration and Nationality Law Advisory Committee of the State Bar. She has been practicing exclusively in the area of U.S. immigration laws since 1994. Most of her practice is in employment-based immigration, representing employers across various industries and their employees. She also represents highly accomplished foreign nationals who self-petition for classification as priority workers under the U.S. immigration law. She is a past Chair, and a current member of the Executive Committee of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, Immigration Law Section, a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association, and has served the Southern California Chapter of that national association in several liaison positions. She practices out of Pasadena.

Eileen Chun-Fruto has practiced immigration law for over 20 years, representing individuals and corporations in the entertainment, social media, finance, high tech, health and science, and liberal arts. Her clients include companies that are publicly traded in Europe and Asia as well as venture capital-backed start-ups in the U.S. Prior to establishing Chun Fruto Law, Eileen co-founded Fong & Chun, LLP in Hollywood and practiced with several nationally recognized immigration law firms. Eileen is currently Of Counsel to Komura & Ho, LLP, an immigration law firm with a practice focused on procuring work visas and green cards for individuals in the entertainment industries such as motion pictures, television, theater, sports, and modeling. Eileen is a California State Bar-Certified Specialist in Immigration and Nationality Law and was designated a Rising Star by Los Angeles Magazine. She has taught courses in Continuing Legal Education for the American Immigration Lawyers Association and the Los Angeles and Orange County Bar Associations.

Questions?

Visit <https://pda.usc.edu> or
Email us at postdocs@usc.edu

Sponsored by the USC Postdoctoral Association and the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs

